THE POLITICAL LEAVES

BLOWN BY AUTUMN WINDS INDI-CATE DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPH.

The Powhatan and Other Clubs Will Join the Demonstration To-Night_Mr, Ham, of Georgia, to Be the Orator.

At 8:45 o'clock last evening the meeting of the Powhatan Club was called to order by President Starke. The committee on membership reported a number of new members, all or whom were duly elected by the club.

The invitation from the Commercial Travelers' Club to join in the demonstration of to-night was read, and by a unanimous vote was accepted.

The club then agreed to turn out in a body, and assist in the procession As the time for notification of the members was limited, it was determined that the notice in the daily papers should be in lieu of any other, and all of the members of the club are requested to meet to-night promptly at 7 o'clock in the club-rooms, and go in a body to the place

President Starke announced that all of the expenses of the recent demonstration had been paid. He stated also that arrangements had been made for the running of the direct wires of the Postal Telegraph Company into the club-rooms during the night of the 8th and the day and night of the

These dispatches will be read first in the club-room, where only the members are supposed to be gathered, and immediately afterward they will be read from the front steps of the club.

A considerable amount of routine busi-The Thurman Club held an enthusiastic meeting last evening at the Henrico County Courthouse, which was largely attended. Mr. Beverly T. Crump, president of the club, opened the meeting with a brief address, in which he expressed the hope that on next Friday evening he could congratulate the club for having once more secured a Democratic Gov-Mr. R. M. Montague, of this city, was introduced as the first speaker, who in an able address explained the iniquities of the McKinley bill and dwelt at some length on the pernicious effect which the Force bill would have, especially in the outh, if it should become a law. He called attention to the fact that President Harrison in making his ap-pointments had either grossly discriminated against the South or had thought that the Southern Republicans were not

He alluded to the billion-dollar Congress and pointed out the pension frauds committed by the Republicans, which Precident Cleveland had bitterly fought

In conclusion he briefly referred to the Republican platform, which he said, was infesion of all the crimes committed appealed to all good Democrats to stand shoulder to shoulder on the 8th of November for Cleveland and Stevenson and George D. Wise in order that victory Mr. Harry M. Smith, Jr., was the next stated that only one hour before the beginning of the meeting he had been informed that he was expected to make address to the unterrified Democracy of Jefferson ward.

The Democrats of Richmond on one occasion had disappointed him, but he trusted that he would never disappoint

Mr. Smith then spoke on the issues of the campaign and stated that never before had there been such an educational campaign as the present one.

The issues had been fairly presented by the Democrats, but the Republicans had failed to respond in a like manner.

en $3.20 per hundred pounds before the neithent of the McKinley bill and was now $5.29, the tax to be paid by the American people on tin-plate annually amounting to lifteen millions of dollars.

The speaker described how the industries in the South had gone down after Mr. Harrison had been elected, and expressed the hope that they would again that start up anew with the election of Mr. Cleveland Mr. Smith closed his speech by urging his bearers to do their full duty, so that if Mr. Cleveland was defeated it could not be said that was done by the assistance of any of the Democrats present.

Colonel Meade Haskins, chairman of the Third congressional district, followed with a well-composed and instructive He told his hearers that he had been in harness ever since July 20th, and given all his time to the canvass, which was more important that any other be-fore, for the reason that the right of property and personal liberty were in-

He polated out that the time for speak-Ing had stopped and that the time for action had come. While the speaker was explaining the McKinley bill Congressman George D. Wise came in, and was greeted with load applicase. Colonel / Haskins continued for some time on the tariff, and finally gave way to Mr. Wise. Congressman Wise made an eloquent address, in which he thoroughly explained the issues of the campaign, and especially the false doctrines which have been spread out by the Third party people. He fully explained their erroneous ideas as to the free coinnge of silver, and zed all good Democrats to support their

Extraordinary arrangements are being made by various political organizations to secure the election news next Tuesday

The city central Democratic committee will have a special wire run into head-quarters for telegraphic returns from abroad and a telephone for local returns. Several of the Democratic clubs propose the same methods for furnishing the news to its members.

Twenty-eight States have adopted the Australian ballot system, and the returns will therefore be slower coming in than on previous occasions. Interest will center, however, on the returns from New York and Indiana

Though these States will both use the Australian ballot, their radiroad and telerraphic systems are so perfect that they will be heard from promptly. The arrangements made by The Times for giving the latest returns to the people as they come in will be perfect and highly entertaining. The plan is described in

The attention of the scouts of the Union Democratic Club is called to a notice in another column of to-day's issue. The campaign is drawing to a close, and it is the duty of every Democrat to be found in line answering to roll-call, therefore it is the wish of President Cullingworth that every namber of the Scouts will be at his post to-night at 7 o'clock to assist the Drummers in their demonstration. The Clay Ward Actives will meet at Belvidere Hall at 7 o'clock to attend the demonstration in a body. Mayor Ellyson is in a state bordering on enthusiasm in regard to the result in Virginia next Tuesday. He says neither the Third party nor the Republicans have any close organization in the State. The Third party vote he places at 5,000, and the Democratic majority at a handsome

The following letter was sent by Mr. E. Grant, the Third party candidate

The announcement that I have made a fusion with any party is absolutely

"Mr. Pierson, the State chairman, has spoken for the party."

There is no doubt that Mr. Grant has made no official fusion, but the fact re-mains that all of the regular Republican tickets bear his name, as well as all the This is certainly a fusion at least to all intents and purposes. Judge Waddill has been making some yery urgent appeals to the negroes in Chinch Bottom, and Mr. John S. Wise will speak at Old Market Hall on next Monday evening. In view of his recent attacks on the South and his allusion to "Mr. Cleveland and his band of ex-Confederates," it will be interesting to note how Mr. Wise will be received on this occasion.

Dr. M. B. Carter has just returned from Washington and the reports he gives of the situation as gained by actual contact with the skillful politicians of that city are of the most encouraging order.

Captain J. H. H. Figgat, of Botetourt; Judge Martin Williams, of Bland, and
Dr. A. Brockenbrough, of Northampton, are all in the city, and from every section the tidings comes of unquestionable Democratic success throughout the State. Hon. James Lindsay Gordon, of Charlottesville, was in the city last evening. He will speak with Senator Daniel in Sussex county to-day, and will finish the cam-paign at his home on Monday. Mr. Gor-don states that the central committee, while still making every effort, are in-deed very sanguine as to the result in the State, and the Democrats are confident of success.

The Richmond College Democratic Club held an enthusiastic meeting last night, President Boyd presided and introduced M. L. Dawson, Harry Lee Watson and F. F. Causey, of Hampton. All of these gentlemen are ex-members of the College law class and each made an excellent

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Interesting Facts About Richmond's Citizens and Other Matters.

Colonel W. W. Gordon is confined to his home by sickness. Mrs. Mollie Gentry, who has been quite sick, is much better. Very Rev. Father Friell is much improved, and has recovered the use of his

Mr. Henry Davis, of New York, and a native of Richmond, is visiting relatives Mr. William Wayne Belvin, who has recently returned from Europe, was in Richmond yesterday. Mr. H. E. C. Baskerville, one of our oldest and most esteemed residents, is very sick with pneumonia. The business meeting of the McGill Catholic Union to be held on Monday night will be very important.

Miss Rosa Meade, of Washington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Cun-ningham, of south Pine street. The funeral of Mr. Thomas Murphy took place from the cathedral with requiem mass yesterday morning. Members of the Sacred Heart League will go to Holy Communion in a body at the Sacred Heart church Sunday morn-

Mr. Marion Knowles, of Atlanta, is in Richmond, visiting his mother, Mrs. John H. Knowles, who has been ill for some

The following passengers arrived on the steamer Wyanoke yesterday morning: Charles A. Buckler, S. J. Edward, S. M. look, John J. Rice and wife.

Mr. Thomas Barham died in Charles City county last Wednesday, aged eightyfour years. Mr. Barham was for many years a well-known resident of Richmond. The report that Rev. Father E. M. Tearney was to be removed from the cathedral is confirmed. He will take charge of the new parish to be formed of the missions of Alexandria.

The slight damage to Ford's Hotel by the late fire is being rapidly repaired. Extensive improvements will be made, and Mr. A. J. Ford is now in the North connection with this business.

Mrs. Elizabeth Crandall, a highly respected resident, died Thursday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Mary E. 2021 east Main street. The funeral took place yesterday morning.

Right Rev. Bishop Van de Vyver is back from Alexandria, where he con-firmed a large class at St. Mary's church, and ordained Mr. R. L. Carne to the priesthood. He will confirm a large class affed to respond in a like manner.

In speaking on the tariff as esnablished of the McKinley bill, the speaker pointed out the tariff on tin-plate, which had be tariff on tin-plate, which had be tariff on tin-plate. byterian church, composed of the members of the congregation. The members of the Presbyterian churches are in-

> A force of hands is engaged in regrading and repairing Ninth street between Broad and Marshall. The newly establirhed grade is considerably righer than the old one, and also effects the crossings on Broad.

A young man named Seth Henley was seriously hurt at the Tredegar Works yesterday afternoon by having his hand caught in a cog wheel. He was carried to the almshouse hospital by the ambulance and his thumb amputated. Rev. Dr. S. C. Clopton, the former pastor of Clay-street church, now in charge of the Baptist church at Anniston, Ala., has been in the city all this week as the guest of Mr. A. J. Chewning, at 1039 west Grace street. He will preach at Clay-street church to his old congregation tomorrow night. Dr. T. P. Bell will fill the pulpit as usual in the morning. The ambulance was called to the First police-station at 10:55 o'clock last night to attend a colored man named Isaac Brown, who had a knife sticking through the hand up to the haft so tight as to be removed with difficulty. The wound was made in a street row betweeen Seven lin by a woman named Phylis Twyman. The man's wound was dressed and he was left at the station.

JAMES RIVER DIVISION.

A Trip Over the Branch of the Chesapeake and Ohio.

The Richmond and Alleghany division of the Chesapeake and Ohio raffroad is doing a big freight business and large local traf-

From the time it fell into the hands of the Chesapeake and Oldo system it has been steadily improving in its physical con-dition, and travel has increased with the comforts and facilities furnished.

The trains, which leave Richmond twice a day, carry Pullman parlor, observation and sleeping cars, and it is not infrequent that extra coaches have to be added to accommodate local travel going out of Richmond. It is said that more coal cars go over this division daily than any other railroad track in Virginia, and that the traffic is only limited by the ability to transfer the cars over the crowded reute through this

A steady improvement is going on from one end of the line to the other, new de-pots being built, short curves being less-ened or straightened, side-tracks being laid and a general freshening up of things

The grading and ballasting show neat and constant care, and the entire line shows management and system.

Whitewash plays a prominent part, and telegraph posts, platform railings and much other rough wood-work shines out in snow flake immaculateness

Mile posts, sign posts, etc., are surround ed by nest mounds of broken rock, and whitened until they shine like beacons in the darkness, enabling a passenger to measure bis progress as they go reeling by in the flight to mountain or sea. What used to be a rather rough trip has by constant improvement been relieved of fatigue and turned into a pleasure ride.

Miss Mary C. Smith Dead. The friends of the family of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Smith will read with sorrow of the death of their oldest daughter.

Mary C. Smith was her name, and after a long illness she died yesterday, aged The funeral will be to-day from St. Patrick's church at 3 P. M.

The Zousves.

The Richmend Zouaves, Captain Frank The Richment Zolutes, Calculation of the Richment Zolutes, Calculation of the Richment Research of the Richment Richment Research of the Richment Rich

KNIGHTS OF THE GRIP. A SUPERIOR PAPER.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR AN IMMENSE DEMONSTRATION.

The Commercial Travelers Will Have a Big Parade and a Big Meeting To-Night. Hon. H. W. J. Ham to Speak.

The Commercial Travelers' Democratic Club had a largely-attended meeting at their rooms last evening.

President W. H. Weisiger kept down the pent-up enthusiasm of the knights of the grip.

Cccasionally the "enthu," was too much even for that admirable presiding officer. Mr. John P. Bates was the patient and courteous secretary. The regular business disposed of, the secretary read some letters he had received.

The first was from His Honor, the Mayor, promising to preside at the meeting at the Academy to-night.

The second was from ex-Governor Fitzhugh Lee. He was sorry he could not come,but he had a date to speak at Mount Jackson to-day, made some time since He sent his love to the boys. The next communication was from the Richmond College Democratic Club, who wrote that they are coming to-night, with one hundred men and a drum corps, transparencies, and last, but not least, by a large majority, the yell: "Whoop-ra-re. Who be we? Cleveland Club of R. C. V."

Looks innocent and quiet on paper, does

Wait for those ten score fresh young lung to split the atmosphere with it! Then there must be a speech from some one, and Mr. W. L. White made an ad-

He was followed by the genial Major J. H. Capers, who entertained the boys as he alone, the great and only J. H. C., can do. And how did the listeners greet these letters and speeches?

With all the energy and vividness, the strength and thoroughness of the commercial traveler. That settles it.

Then they went home to dream of tonight's demonstration, the programme for which is as follows: The Commercal Travelers' Democratic Club will meet at their rooms at 6 P. M. to-day. They will don their uniform and be ready to move at 7:30 precisely. Here are the general orders of the chief mar-shal, Colonel J. B. Purcell and the chief aide, Colonel J. V. Bidgood: Headquarters Commercial Travelers'

Democratic Club, Richmond, Va., November 4, 1892. General Orders-The marshals from the different clubs and aldes appointed by the chief marshal will report to Joseph V. Bidgood, chief of staff, for instructions, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, corner Fourteenth and Main streets. The clubs will take position preparatory to the march in the following order:
All clubs from Fulton, form of north side of Main, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth, right resting on Fourteenth. Church Hill, Jefferson and lower Jack-son ward, on south side of Main between Fourteenth and Fifteenth, on Main facing north.

Manchester on Fourteenth between Main and Cary, right resting on Main. College Democratic on Thirteenth be-tween Main and Franklin, right on Main. Cleveland and Stevenson, Powhatan, Tariff Reform on Eleventh between Main and Bank, right on Main.

and Fank, right on Main.

Madison Ward on Tenth between Main and Bank, right on Main.

Clay Ward Actives and Workingmen's Democratic Club on Tenth between Main and Cary, right on Main.

United Democratic Club of Jackson ward on Ninth between Main and Bank, sight on Main.

The Commercial Travelers' Democratic teenth and Fourteenth, right near Thirrear Commercial Travelers' Club. Police on Main between Twelfth and All clubs will be in position by 7 o'clock, as the head of the line will move at 7:30 o'clock. A representative from each daily paper is requested to act as aide to chief mar-shal, and will report mounted. Badges will be issued to the marshal and aides

Saturday evening. The column will move up Main to Fifth, to Franklin, to Henry, to Broad, to Eighth, to Mozart Academy of Music. By Order J. B. PURCELL, Chief Marshal.

J. V. Bidgood, Chief Aide. The big meeting will be in the Academy of Music, at which, as stated, Mayor Ellyson will be president. Admission to the stage will be by tickets only. of the house is open, and the speakers will be the Hon. H. W. J. Ham, of Georgia, and Hon. George D. Wise, of Vir-

Mr. Ham spoke Thursday night at the great Tammany Hall meeting in New The Herald of yesterday alludes to his "rip-roaring Sam-Jones-Sam-Small sort of a speech." And then "in his serious of a speech." And then "in his serious periods Mr. Ham took the hide off the alleged impositions and misrepresentations of the Republican canvass in this campaign in a manner that drew forth wild applause This speaker is expected to arrive here during the day, and will be at the Exing the Academy, large as it is, will not hold all who want to hear good Demo cratic doctrine, will have an overflow meeting. This will be held in front of the St. Claire Hotel, Ninth and Grace streets. Mr. D. T. Wilbon will preside. The speakers will be Judge H. W. Flournoy, Hon, B. B. Munford and others, There will be a number of floats in line The Travelers' Club will have four. One of them will be a representation of "the only thing McKinley forgot to tax." There is much curiosity expresed as to what this is. I begged hard for its name, but couldn't get it. Altogether, to-night promises to be a red-letter and red-fire night in the annals of the campaign. So have your supper early and en-courage the boys by your presence at the meeting and the speakers by your attention and applause. The Travelers' Club have arranged for a special wire to be run into their club-room. The returns will be announced

Stenling Clothing.

of election day.

promptly from all quarters on the night

Officer McMahon, of the Third policestation, is at work on a robbery case which took place yesterday morning at I. W. Schneider's store, No. 410 west Broad street. Some bakers at work in heard steps overhead, and finally called to ascertain who it was and hearing no reply, went into the yard in time to see a negro man rush from the house and make his escape. They ran after him for several blocks without identifying him, and then gave up the Numerous articles of clothing and a number of pairs of shoes were taken At a late hour last night no arrest had been made.

Attempted Robbery.

Quite an excitement was caused last night by a supposed attempt at robbery at the residence of Mr. John P. Branch, No. 1 west Franklin street. About midnight a burglar alarm in the house sounded, and the police from the Third station were summoned. Several officers and a numbr of citizens surrounded the house. Several doors were found open, but nothing was missing, and the thief probably took heed to the warning of the burglar alarm and escaped without detection.

Mattner and Night.

To day the last two performances of "A Texas Steer" will be given. The audience last night was even larger than on Thursday, and the "Steer" could, from all appearances, run another week.

We are determined that each succeeding issue of the Sunday TIMES shall, if possible, be more pleasing to its readers than the last, and we believe that to-morrow's paper will excel any previous edition. We think you will agree with us when the paper comes out. Old people and young people, little boys and little girls—all have been remembered in our preparations for next Sunday. and we trust they will appreciate our efforts to give them a paper equal in most respects to the Metropolitan Sunday Journals. Among the special articles in to-morrow's TIMES will

BEARS AND PEANUTS.

How to start a family row in the Zoo in Central Park in New York for the price of a nickel. Lots of fun and some moral reflections found in the manner of life of the brown bears and polar bears. Human nature in a cage. Illustrated.

HARVARD'S FINE TEAM.

Nine of last year's eleven have returned. Bright prospects of victory. New tricks invented and signals adopted. What has brought about the defeat of Yale heretofore. Practicing in private. Personnel of the team. Illustrated.

TWO GRAND OLD MEN.

Both living in retirement honored by their neighbors. Joseph T. Van Vleck, founder of the banking house of Drexel, Morand & Co., and Nathaniel S. Barry, ex-Governor of New Hampshire. Their early struggles. Illustrated.

THE LIME-KILN CLUB.

Brother Gardner makes a few remarks about chickens, wherein the conclusion is arrived at that the colored man's taste for the barn-yard denizen is still active and unimpaired. Illustrated.

EDITORS OF MAGAZINES.

Modest men who read a multitude of manuscripts. Interesting information about Mr. Alden, of Harper's; Mr. Gilder, of The Century; Mr. Burlingame, of Scribner's, and Mr. Walker, of the Cosmopolitan. Illustrated.

GAMBLERS ON ELECTION.

Large sums wagered on the result in New York. The sporting syndicate has agents in all doubtful States and makes a business of election betting. Scenes at headquarters. The Third-party campaign.

ABE'S COUSIN. Interesting reminiscences of the late Dennis Hanks. Much of his latter life spent in telling stories of Lincoln. Strange environment of the late President's early life. Illustrated. AN ARTISTIC TRIUMPH. The Coghlan's revival of Sardou's play, "Diplomacy," in New York. Genuine art appreciated. Coghlan's wonderful impersonation of the character of Henri Beauclerc.

Frederick Robinson, John T.

Sullivan and beautiful Sadie Martinot. Illustrated.

TO REDUCE EXPENSE. Base-ball league magnates to cut the players' salaries. Must be made to pay. The change that has come over the spirit of the base-ballists' dreams. The scarcity of first-class second basemen. Other sporting gos-

THE BYCKERING BIRD.

A ballad of three merry litmen who looked before they leaped. Illlustrated.

THE CHOLERA AT HAVRE.

How the epidemic came and went. Epidemics of 1892 and 1884. Safe quarters in the midst of cholera. Cholera streets. Havre disinfected.

NEW YORK FASHIONS.

Mate Leroy tells how girls should be dressed. The smaller the child the bigger the hat. About underwear for young folks. A "chic" rosebud luncheon. The young ladies outdoor hats. Other gossip. Illustrated.

NEW OXFORD MINUET. (Music for Piano.)

Composed by C. G. Watson, author of the Sandpaper Dance. Explanation of this fashionable dance. THE PRESIDENT'S GRANDCHIL-DREN. Benjamin and Mary. A sample of "Baby" McKee's German.

SWEET CHARITY AFFAIRS. The season approaching for bazaars, suppers and sociables.

DAINTY DISHES.

Some choice recipes selected for our housekeeping readers. IDEA OF THE ORIGIN OF TEA.

A pretty little story. Suggestions on a modest afternoon entertäinment.

EXQUISITE TOILETTES FOR WO-

MEN. Charming bonnet for theatre wear in pale blue felt. A becoming hat in green felt. Afternoon reception gown in plaid silk. Charming little gown in dove gray epingline.

A very dressy model of directoire jacket in golden brown cloth. (Large engravings and descriptions of each of these.)

HUMBOLDT, THE POMERANIAN. A story of the war.

SOCIETY IN THE CITY AND STATE. Interesting articles by fair correspondents. Parties, receptions, marriages in various sections of Virginia. WITH THE FETERANS,

Arrangements for an Entertainment.-The Gettysburg Battlefield.

Lee Camp had an unusually large meeting last evening, and great enthusiasm was exhibited by the members. Major Randolph reported that all ar-tion to begin at the Mozart Academy on Thursday. December 6th, for the benefit of the charity fund of the camp. This entertainment will surpass anything of its kind given before in Richmond, and the kind-hearted ladies of this city have taken charge of the affair and will make it a grand success.

The preparations are being pushed forward on a grand scale, and the public can be assured of an evening of real enjoy-The Ladies' Auxiliary Corps of Lee Camp made their annual report to the camp, showing the great and good work accom-plished by the noble ladies in ministering the unfortunate Confederate soldiers and their families. Grand Commander Thomas A. Brander, of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans, brought to the attention of the camp the offer of Mr. W. F. Mason McCarty of Hagerstown, Md., to donate an acre of land to mark the spot where General Armistead fell. Major Brander stated that he had written to the Governor recommending that the matter be placed in the hands of the Grand Camp of Virginia, and that they appoint trustees to hold the property for the benefit of the State, to take charge for the benefit of the State, to take charge of the land and put it in proper shape at once, so that steps can be taken to per-petuate the deeds of the heroic son of the South, who fell on the battle-field of Get-

The action of the Grand Commander was approved by the camp.

OUR DAY OF THANKSGIVING.

President Harrison Issues His Annual Proclamation. WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 .- By the President of the United States:

A PROCLAMATION. The gifts of God to our people during the past year have been so abundant and so special that the spirit of devout thanksgiving awaits not a call, but only the appointment of a day when it may have a common expression. He has stayed the pestilence at our door; he has given us more love for the free civil institutions, in the creation of which his direction providence was so conwhich his directing providence was so con-spicuous; he has awakened a deeper rever-ence for law; he has widened our philan-thropy by a call to succor the distress in other lands; he has blessed our schools, and is bringing forward a pstriotic and God-fear-ing generation to execute his great and benevolent designs for our country; he has given us great increase immaterial wealth. given us great increase inmaterial wealth, and a wide diffusion of contentment and comfort in the homes of our people; he has comfort in the homes of our people; he has given his grace to the sorrowing.

Wherefore, I. Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States, do call upon our people to observe, as we have been wont. Thursday, the 24th day of this month of November, as a day of thanksgiving to God tor his mercies and of supplication for his continued care and grace.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 4th day of November, 1892, and in the independence of the United States 117th.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

By the President, John W. Foster, Secretary of State. BATTLE WITH DEPUTY MARSHALS, A Desperate Fight With a Notorious Gang of Outlaws. TAHLEQUAH, I. T., Nov. 4 .- Another desperate battle has occurred between a posse of deputy United States marshals and the notorious Ned Christie, who a few days ago escaped from 'them. Learning that Christie and his gang had returned to their cabin in the Caney mountains, United States Marshal Yoes sent a force of fifty determined deputies to renew the attack. They were led by Deputy Marshal White It was learned here yesterday that the party reached the fort and made an attack Wednesday night. When the marshals surrounded the house Archer Wolf came out and was ordered to surrender. He refused and was fired upon and fell mortally wounded, but managed to crawl back in Immediately the gang opened fire on the marshals and a number of them were hit. A perfect fusilade of firing has been kept up between the opposing parties all day, and it is feared that many are killed. A wagen load of arms, ammunition and provisions has been sent out from here, and the marshals will settle down to a regular siege. Their orders are to get the gang dead or alive, AFFRAY AT POCAHONTAS.

A Man Shoots His Brother-in-Law for Beating His Wife and Then Flies.

POCAHONTAS, VA., Nov. 4.-Special.-A fatal shocting affray occurred here about 6 o'clock this evening, James Hughes shooting his brother-in-law, Alex. McKay, Me-Kay became enraged at his wife for hitting a dog and began beating her. Young Hughes ran up stairs and got his pistol and shot McKny in the breast. Hughes escaped and has not yet been caught Both are respectable citizens, and are em ployes of the Southwest Company, at this Very Rough Hazing.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 4.-A gang of masked students of Wittenburg College committed an assault upon William C. Prigsley, a student from South Charles-ton. He was thrown under a hydrant and held for five minutes until thoroughly soaked. The gang then tied him flat to a rail and beating him on the face en route, dragged him to a creek, and after shaving part of his head threw him, still tied to the rail, into the water, where finally brought help. The cries faculty will investigate.

Indicted for False Registration. JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 4.-The Hudson county grand jury this afternoon indicted fifty-four colored and one hundred white men for false registration.

NEWS OF MANCHESTER.

YESTERDAY'S DOINGS IN RICH-MOND'S GROWING SISTER CITY.

Personal Happenings-Items of Interest Gathered Here and There by The Times Man-Political Doings.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, ! 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTLE BLOCK.

In the hustings court of Manchester, Judge Ingram on the bench, yesterday the case of Neeson's heirs against Atkinson, was tried, on a motion for a new trial from the July term.

This motion the Judge overruled. The defendant excepted and filed his bill. This case will probably go to the supreme court, on appeal from this court.

Judge Ingram, of the hustings court rangements had been made for the exhibihas confirmed the sale of the Osterbind lot, Thirteenth and Porter streets, to the trustees of Central Methodist church. This property was lately offered for sale, but the price not being large enough, it was sold to the ladies of the Christian Band of this church. They offered 120 per front foot, which offer was accepted. The lot fronts 73 feet on Porter street, and a new church building will be built there by the congregation. These ladies are to be commended for their noble

The Democrats of the Second and First wards joined in a meeting at the Odd-Fellows' Hall last night, which was largely attended.

Mr. O. I. Merritt, the energetic president of the Second warders, called the audior the Second warders, called the audience to order and nominated ex-Mayor John E. Taylor for president. Mr. Taylor was warmly received, and thanked the meeting for the honor. He introduced the Hon. George D. Wise, who spoke briefly, plainly and forcibly.

He gave way to Mr. Beverley B. Munford of Plahrand where address warmen.

ford, of Richmond, whose address was a very strong presentation of the Demo-cratic principles of the campaign.

cratic principles of the campaign.

Much good was undoubtedly done by the visit of these two gentlemen. The Blues' Band made everybody jolly by their well selected music.

Captain J. A. Lipscomb calls a meeting of the Sexennial League this (Saturday) night, 8 o'clock promptly, at Tholl's Hall, 700 west Broad street, Richmond.

Mr. John H. Burton, of Manchester, is in charge of the commissary at Mr. W.
O. Burton's brick yard, four miles be-O. Burton's brick yard, four miles below Richmond.

The Rev. Mr. Summerville, of Nelson, is on a visit to Rev. John J. Clopton, of Meade-Memorial church.
Mr. and Mrs. John G. Rice have come back from their wedding trip.
The Third ward Democrats meet this evening in the vacant store, 1114 Hull case of the colored man, Overton Cou-sins, who died Thursday at Granite. He was drunk the night before, it is said. It is quite likely he fell and received the fracture of the skull that caused his death. Mr. Melville Martin, of Chesterfield, re-

There are no new developments in the

Mr. Peyton Hooe, who has been ill some weeks, will go back home to Cumberland with his sister. Mr. B. F. Kirkland died at 401 Seventh street at 9:37 o'clock last evening after turned to Richmond College last Wednesday. He had been ill at his home an illness of only five days.

He leaves a wife and one daughter, the latter being Mrs. Robert B. Traylor, of Richmond. He was formerly a citizen of Petersburg, and for many years a worthy em-ploye of the Rickmond and Danville

For the last two years he has been in the employ of the Richmond, Fredericks-burg and Potomac railway. He was a member in good standing of

Dale Lodge, No. 593, Knights of Honor. The funeral notice will appear in Sunday's Times

An Australian Ballot, A sample ballot prepared to be voted at the several election precincts in Kingwood magisteral district of Preston county, W. Va., was shown me yesterday. It is something of a novelty, being what is called an "Australian" ballot.

In size it is twenty-five inches long by ten inches wide. There are four national tickets printed across the top. They are the Democratic ticket, the Prohibition ticket, the People's party ticket and the Republican ticket.

The candidates on the national tickets other than the Prohibition are well known.

The Prohibition ticket is headed by John A. The Prohibition ticket is headed by John A. Bidwell, of California, for President and J. B. Cranfeil, of Texas, for Vice-President.

The candidate for Congress in the Third district of West Virginia is the same man on both the Democratic and People's party tickets, and is Mr. John D. Alderson, of Nicholas Courthouse, West Virginia. Underneath these national tickets are the State tickets of each of the four vertice. State tickets of each of the four parties.
And below them still follow the Greenbrier county tickets. Republican and Democratic, even including justices of the peace and constables. Elaborate instructions how to vote are in the body of the ballot.

Have Not Called a Pastor. Clay-street Baptist church is without any immediate prospect of having a permanent pastor. I had a conversation yesterday with a prominent officer of that church, in which he said the report that his church had extended a call to Rev. Mr. Gray, of Mississippi, was not true, and that no communication had been received from him by the church. He said that Mr. Gray had been invited to visit Richmond by a member of that church, and declined on account of engagements at home. He will attend the Virginia Baptists' Association at Danville, commencing November 11th, and has again been invited by friends to visit

Richmond, and he may do so, but he has not received or considered a call here.

At the Y. M. C. A. The meeting for young men to be held to-merrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the library and reading room of the Young Men's Christian Association will be conducted by Mr. Thomas S. Potts, who will make an interesting address. Mr. D. Schuyler Bennett will preside over the organ and Mr. Shepherd Webb will play the piano, and Mr. G. Burton Mounteastle will accompany the singing on the cornet while company the singing on the cornet, while Mr. E. H. Clowes will sing a baritone solo, Professor Horace F. Smith will conduct the singing.

At 5.15 P. M. Mr. Candlish will take charge of his Bible class, when he will discuss the Sunday school lesson of the following week. The reading room will hereafter be on every Sunday evening from 7:30 to 10 P. M.

Mr. W. J. Gentry, late deputy sheriff, is now traveling for a prominent Rich-mond tobacco company, and Mr. Flem-ing Meredith has been appointed deputy by Sheriff John T. Hughes.

HAVE YOU TRIED BROWN'S IRON BITTERS?